

Tool Crib Attendant

LA Gauge provides ultra-precision machining and optics capabilities to the Aerospace, Defense, and Commercial Industries. We specialize in machining and polishing Beryllium components used in nuclear reactors, guidance systems, satellites, and targeting systems holding machining tolerances to 50 millionths of an inch, and polishing tolerances to the billionths (angstroms).

We are looking for someone with a positive can do attitude, discipline to focus on long term projects, disposition to thrive under pressure, and self-starter drive to continuously improve.

With the use of tool grinding equipment and pre-setting equipment. This position is able to ensure support for production personnel.

Job Functions

- Maintain steady and even control of cutting tools, holders, adapters, inserts, etc.
- Works with all other floor supervisors to ensure maximum performance of all cutting tools on production use. Any modifications must be carefully acted upon to the utmost extent to ensure efficiency of any cutting tool
- Grinds all tools for all production use along and re-condition every LA Gauge production tool.
- Plans and organizes all tool grinding/setting operations to meet needed production use
- Management of tool setting and grinding functions

Skill Requirements

- High School Diploma or G.E.D (math highly needed)
- Blueprint reading, understanding machine shop terminology, able to use and understand machinist tools (Ex: micrometers, calipers, indicators, etc.)
- All technical communication between anyone requesting special shaped or formed cutting tools MUST completely understand what is written
- Machine Shop: 5 yrs minimum, Tool Grinding: 2-3 yrs,
- Must be able to lift and/or push up to 50lbs.
- Able to stand of long periods of time
- Perform other tasks as assigned

Success Factors

- Attention to detail
- Ability to work independently and with others in a team environment
- Positive can do attitude
- Enthusiasm and self-motivation

Working Conditions

- Manufacturing Environment
- High intensity
- Minimal travel

LA Gauge Offers

- Competitive pay schedules
- Medical coverage
- Dental & Vision coverage
- 401K
- Life Insurance
- 2 weeks' PTO (Paid Time Off)